Red Hind Stalking Newtonmore

Hendry Ramsay & Waters are delighted to offer the following opportunities to stalk hinds on excellent ground in the Cairngorm National Park on the edge of the Mondialiths. Located close to Newtonmore the Estate extends to over 8,000 acres. The Estate benefits from a well managed deer park and selected stags have been used to breed with and enhance the quality of the deer herd. Stag weights have increased by almost 1 stone over the past three years.

The hind stalking is let in blocks of three days for 2 rifles. There is no limit on the number of hinds that can be shot. Accepting that these are wild animals a competent stalker can reasonably expect to shoot multiple animals each day.

There are two resident experienced stalkers and ample ground to have two rifles out from the start of the hind season. There is a good road network that extends deep into the main glen and access beyond this point is by Argocat. Once on the tops of the hill the ground is relatively flat.

This is a very scenic estate and clients who are seeking a genuinely authentic experience of stalking in the Scottish Highlands will be delighted by their experience. Although not unusually difficult terrain, please remember that a reasonable degree of physical fitness is required.

There is a two bedroom recently refurbished cottage available as part of the package. It benefits from a central location, adjacent to the Head stalker's house so guests will not lose time travelling to and from the Estate and can begin stalking almost as soon as they leave the cottage. The cottage is let on a self-catered basis and supplies are sourced from the nearby town of Newtonmore.

There is also a three bedroom cottage that is let separately, please ask if this option is of interest.

Three sets of date are available:

October 24th – 26th no bag limit for two rifles with two guides and 4 night's accommodation in the Bothy Cottage

November 7th – 9th no bag limit for two rifles with two guides and 4 night's accommodation in the Bothy Cottage

December 5th – 8th no bag limit for two rifles with two guides and 4 night's accommodation in the Bothy Cottage

In each instance guests arrive the night prior to their first day stalking and leave the morning after their last day stalking. This is an ideal and quite unusually generous arrangement recognising the rigours of three days on the hill.

Price: £1,500 + VAT per person based on 2 people.
