DRIVEN PARTRIDGES, SOUTHERN SPAIN 2024/25.

October 16th to Late March

Hendry, Ramsay & Waters (Worldwide) Ltd, are pleased to be able to offer this excellent driven partridge shoot, some 45 minutes drive from Seville airport. The terrain is quite varied, made up of valleys with olive trees, vineyards and arable land providing the ideal habitat for red legged partridges. This hilly and most scenic area produces excellent fast, high flying birds for groups of six to eight hunters, days of 500 or more birds are available.

The Hacienda is spacious and luxurious and holds an amazing and important collection of big game taxidermy from all around the world.

The cuisine and hospitality equals the quality of the sport.

The airport of choice is Seville. On arrival you will be assisted through customs with your shotguns and then transferred to the Estate Lodge in good quality vehicles.

Day One.

Arrival and transfer to the estate for relaxation and dinner.

Days Two & Three.

The day begins with breakfast & then to the first drive, after this some tapas is taken.

Two more drives follow before lunch which is served on the house patio or in the field if the weather allows.

Two more drives are taken after lunch and then we return to the house for afternoon tea.

Dinner is served later in the evening.

Transfer back to Seville is after the second days shooting.
